WINTER 2020 @ CET arts enrichment for budding artists by local artists

We still have room left in the following fun and exciting classes, and have opened some to additional grades. Late registration is available but we will be determining class run by Sunday, 1/19, so please sign up now: www.crotonacademy.org/cet

Session dates: Classes run through March 27th. Note: Late registration is available.

Mondays

- Beginning 1/27: Movement, Action, Music! with Brian Gunning – mixed ages
In this new, fun and interactive class, Brian explores different kinds of music and dance moves from Broadway, hip-hop to classical, while strengthening listening and expression skills.
- Fan Fiction Club with Meredith Phillips, grades 2-4
This new class is a great way for students to bolster their writing skills while using their imaginations and having a blast as they write new stories about their favorite characters.
- Elementary Drawing with Young Rembrandts, grades K-2

Tuesdays

- Musical Theater: Sing, Dance Act! Grades 2-4 with Natalie Arneson
We've opened this class to 2nd graders
- Origami Pet Shop with Kazuko Omori Grades K-3

Thursdays

- Papier Maché Sculpting – mixed age group with Darcey Stewart McDonough
Our Friday class is sold out. We still have spaces available in this class and have opened it to all grades.

Fridays

- Talk-n-Drum with Nanette Garcia – grades K-2 starts 1/24
This unique class is taught by an Afro-Cuban drumming expert and introduces participants to Spanish and sign language along with the beats.
- Cartooning with Young Rembrandts – grades 3-4, starts 1/24
We are opening this class to all interested students
