

Croton-Harmon Schools Culture of Respect Task Force:

Where We Are, What's Next

October 9th 2018

How long have you been a member of this task force?

9 responses

- Less than 1 year
- 1 year
- 2 years

How satisfied are you with each of the following?

This task force has the capability to improve student health and safety	The work of this task force is supported by district leadership
78% strongly agree	78% strongly agree

This task force has successfully made changes that improve student health and safety

67% strongly agree

The work of this task force has been shared across its membership

67% strongly agree

The work of this task force has helped to increase collaboration within the district

45% strongly agree

This task force has representation from all necessary stakeholder groups

*56% strongly agree
22% somewhat agree
22% somewhat disagree*

How knowledgeable are you about our district's Title IX policies?

9 responses

- Not at all knowledgeable
- A little knowledgeable
- Somewhat knowledgeable
- Very knowledgeable

What has the task force done well?

- Learned from each other
- Give all stakeholders a voice
- Put important issues into the spotlight
- Opened up an important dialogue
- Bring in outside sources to support us
- Kept student wellness at the center of our conversations

What could the task force do better?

- Communicating our message to the larger community
- Communicate more with students, parents, and staff
- Solicit more student feedback

What could the task force do NEXT?

- Involve more students
  - Share what we've learned with other schools
  - More training and involvement from parents
  - Involve sports players and teams
  - Involve more representatives from the elementary school
  - Address other issues that intersect with sexual violence
-
- The slide features two large, solid purple triangles at the bottom. One is on the left, pointing downwards and to the right. The other is on the right, pointing upwards and to the left. They meet at the bottom center, creating a V-shape.

Plans for next year:

-

Culture of Respect Timeline

July 2017 - Contract with Culture of Respect finalized

October 2017 - Task force kick off and Culture of Respect Site visit

November + December 2017 - Administration of the CORE Evaluation

January + February 2018 - Development of our IIP

October 2018 - Satisfaction survey, Culture of Respect site visit

May 2018 - Readministration of the CORE Evaluation

Guiding questions

- What are your first thoughts from looking at this survey data?
- In general, we are so pleased to responses are overwhelmingly positive. While we know we can keep striving to be better, what in these results do we particularly want to celebrate?
- A few members reported they aren't certain the task force has all the necessary representation. Someone specifically mentioned representation from the elementary school. Who else can we invite to the team?
- A lot of members responded they'd like us to better communicate with the broader community. We agree this should be a focus for the upcoming year. What ideas do participants have about how we can improve our communications, both internally and externally?